

Devotion to the Passion of Christ

My children, poor sinners! Do not distance yourselves from Me. I wait for you night and day at the Tabernacle. I will not reproach your crimes; I will not throw your sins in your face. What I will do is to wash you with the Blood of My wounds. Do not be afraid, come to Me. You do not know how much I love you...

“Contemplate My wounds and see if there is anyone who has suffered as much as I, to show you their love...

“Contemplate for a moment these bloodstained hands and feet... This naked body, covered with wounds, with urine, and blood. Dirty... This head punctured by sharp thorns, soaked in sweat, full of dust, and covered in Blood...

“Contemplate your Jesus, hanging on the Cross, without being able to make the slightest movement... naked, without fame, without honor, without liberty...

“If you truly love Me, will you be ready to be like Me? What will you refuse in order to obey Me, to please Me, to console Me?...

“Contemplate Me in the image of the Christ who cries and bleeds. There and in this way the world has Me.”

The above quotes are from the book “The Passion” of Christ. The book has the Imprimatur of Archbishop of Cochabamba, Bolivia and is available Free to read and/or print on our Web site. To receive your free copy of the book, send $2.00 for S&H to the address below. The picture is of the bleeding statue of Christ, also in Cochabamba, that was declared worthy of veneration by the same Archbishop.
